

The Singing Wells Project: Music of the Kalenjin

Artist: Kalomoywa

Date: 6th March, 2012

Location: Kamatira, Kenya

Tribe: Kalenjin, Pokot

Translated by: David Lomoywara ('Tough Bull')

Kinyakar: This is about someone who is a coward and not brave enough.

Kamatakor: About a woman who is a prostitute going from house to house.

Chepo Nandi: This is about a daughter from a different community called the Nandi.

Kamitoi: A mother with many children. This is a good thing and a sign of wealth.

Kaperwo: A blessing

Chemining Tai: About a girl with a small body.

Chepo Chepokai: About a bad sister, named after a bird called Kai.

Kimakiy Mitinge: is a place

Kisech: This is the name of a border between two tribes. It is a dangerous place.